You should also initial each page at the bottom, but only if you have read and have understood that page. If there is anything that you do not understand, you should tell your lawyer and the judge who hears the case, so that they can explain it to you fully, to make sure that you understand all your rights.

Most of these questions can be answered "yes" or "no." Where general information is requested, please answer fully.

1. What is your full name? _____
2. Has your attorney explained to you all of the elements of the crime or crimes to which you intend to plead guilty? _____
3. If there is a plea agreement, do you understand that the court is not bound by this agreement and does not have to accept it? _____
4. Do you understand that if the Court does not accept the plea agreement you may then withdraw your plea of guilty? _____
 - 4.1 Do you understand that if you do withdraw your guilty plea the Commonwealth will then have 120 days in which to bring you to trial, unless an extension is granted by the Court for proper cause? _____
5. Do you fully understand the permissible range of sentence and/or fines that can be imposed for the crime or crimes charged as are set forth in page 1? _____
6. Has anybody told you, promised you, suggested to you or indicated to you in any manner what the actual sentence of the Court will be? _____
7. Do you understand that you have the right to a speedy trial and a prompt trial such that you must be tried within 180 days of the date of the filing of the criminal complaint, if incarcerated, otherwise within 365 days, unless an extension is granted by the Court for proper cause? _____
8. Do you understand that you may waive your right to a jury trial and with the consent of your attorney, if any, and with the approval by a judge of the court in which the case is pending, elect to be tried by a judge who would then sit as a finder of fact in place of a jury? _____
9. Do you understand that if you were to elect to go to trial that you are presumed to be innocent and that the Commonwealth must prove your guilt beyond a reasonable doubt as to each element of every crime charged? _____
10. Do you understand that if you were to elect to go to trial that you do not have to testify on your own behalf you may but you don't have to. If you don't, no inference can be drawn against you? _____
11. Do you understand that if you were to go to trial you do not have to have anyone testify on your behalf - you may but you don't have to? _____
12. Do you understand that you do not have to establish or prove your innocence and that it is absolutely necessary that the Commonwealth prove your guilt beyond a reasonable doubt? _____
13. Do you understand that if you plead guilty you are waiving your right to have the Commonwealth prove your guilt beyond a reasonable doubt? _____
 - 13.1 Do you understand that a reasonable doubt means a doubt that would cause an ordinary prudent person to hesitate, or restrain him or her, from acting upon a matter of importance to his or her own affairs? _____
14. It is necessary that you understand the jury selection process. If you were to go to trial, a group of people, picked at random and representing a cross section of the citizens of Columbia County, would be brought into the courtroom. They would be placed under oath; that is, they would be sworn to tell the truth. While they are under oath, you, through your attorney, would have the right to ask them certain questions, as would the district attorney. These questions would be designed to determine whether the prospective jurors could sit as fair and impartial jurors. If the answers to the questions would indicate to the Court that one or more prospective jurors could not sit as fair and impartial jurors, they would be dismissed for cause. There is no limit to the number of jurors that can be dismissed for cause. In addition to this, you, through your attorney, and the district attorney would have the right to cross off, eliminate or excuse five jurors each, if the most serious charge is a misdemeanor, or seven jurors each, if the most serious charge is a felony. These are known as peremptory challenges. You do not have to give any reason to anyone as to why you dismissed these five or seven prospective jurors. The result would be that we would end with twelve jurors and two alternates who would sit and listen to the entire case. Only twelve of these jurors would then go to the jury room to deliberate on the case and determine whether the Commonwealth has proven you guilty beyond a reasonable doubt.

14.1 Do you understand the jury selection process? _____

14.2 Do you understand that you have the right to help, to aid, and to assist your attorney in the selection of a jury? _____

14.3 Do you understand that in order to find you guilty the jury must reach a unanimous verdict? In other words, do you understand that all twelve jurors must be convinced beyond a reasonable doubt that the Commonwealth has proven you guilty? _____

14.4 Do you understand that if you plead guilty you are waiving your right to a trial by jury? _____

14.5 Do you understand that if you plead guilty you are waiving your right, subject to the consent of your attorney, if any, and the judge, to be tried by a judge who would be sitting as a fact finder in place of a jury? _____

15. Do you understand that if you plead guilty you are waiving your right to present any defenses that either you or your attorney may think that you have to the crime or crimes charged? _____

16. Do you understand that by pleading guilty you are waiving your right to file any pre- or post-trial motions and waiving any such motions already filed? _____

17. Do you understand that if you would elect to go to trial the Commonwealth would call certain witnesses to testify against you and that you have the right to confront and cross-examine these witnesses? _____

18. Do you understand that if you plead guilty you are waiving your right to confront and cross-examine the witnesses that the Commonwealth would call to testify against you? _____

19. Do you understand that if you plead guilty you are waiving your right to object to anything that you think was improper or illegal in your apprehension and arrest, or in the investigation and prosecution of the charges against you? _____

20. There are certain rights you are not waiving if you plead guilty. First, you have the right to file a motion to withdraw your plea. This motion must be filed prior to sentencing. If you were to file such a motion this would present two issues or questions to the Court. The first is: Do you have a fair and just reason to withdraw your plea? The second is: if the Court were to allow you to withdraw your plea, would this result in substantial prejudice to the Commonwealth? If the Court were to determine both questions in your favor; that is, if the Court were to find that you did have a fair and just reason to withdraw your plea and that it would not result in substantial prejudice to the Commonwealth, then the Court would allow you to withdraw your plea; otherwise, the Court would not allow you to withdraw your plea.

20.1 Do you understand that you have the right to file a motion to withdraw your plea prior to sentencing? _____

20.2 Do you understand the issues or questions that this would present to the Court? _____

You have the right to file a motion to modify or to question the propriety of your sentence within 10 days after the date of sentencing. You have a right to appeal your conviction to the Superior Court within 30 days after the date of sentencing. The appeal of a guilty plea is limited to four grounds. They are: (a) that your guilty plea was not a knowing, understanding, intelligent and voluntary act, (b) that the Court did not have jurisdiction to accept your plea (in other words the crime or crimes for which you are pleading guilty did not occur in Columbia County), (c) that the sentence was improper or illegal and (d) that your attorney was not competent. Do you understand these four areas of appeal, what they mean and the fact that they are not waived? _____
